INTRODUCING OUR 2015 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

JOHN LALOUDAKIS Chandler, AZ Stanford University $3000

“John has perseverance, thoroughness, initiative and enthusiasm. From his Latin competitions to his continuous efforts to translate ancient Greek and Latin texts and even learn an ancient Doric dialect from his parents’ region in Arkadia in the Peloponnese.”

VASILIKI TASOULI-DRAKOU Highland, CA Citrus Valley H.S. $2000

“For whatever I have achieved so far, my fundamentals are moral dignity, friendship, the unity of the family, and the importance of service. I believe that an education without a good character is incomplete.”

GEORGE SEHREMELIS Los Alamitos, CA Los Alamitos H.S. $2000

“His passion for learning almost seems confined and arrested in high school as he feels he is almost ready to reach out and touch what college has to offer. Two highly gifted sisters ahead of him have helped deepen his thirst as he sees them reap the rewards of having a first class education.”

LAUREN THOMAS Thousand Oaks, CA Westlake H.S. $2000

“Her peers recognize and follow her lead. She loves a challenge and finds overcoming the difficulty very rewarding. It is refreshing to see a student realize they are responsible for their own fate and do everything they can to ensure they have no regrets.”
